The Supervisory Board acknowledges the founders' entrepreneurial success

Feldkirchen (Germany), June 20, 2007

Andreas Dauderer and Dr. Christian Wilkening, the founders and members of the Alphaform AG Management Board, one of Europe's leading production houses for small series and prototypes in the fields of automotive systems, rapid prototyping and injection moulding, today announced, after consultation with the Supervisory Board, that they won't be renewing their contracts at the end of 2007.

Tobias Seige, Chairman of the Alphaform Supervisory Board recognises the entrepreneurial success of the two founders, stating that, "On behalf of everybody at Alphaform, I would like to thank both gentlemen for their excellent contributions and accomplishments. Andreas Dauderer and Dr. Christian Wilkening have both shaped our company using their entrepreneurial spirit and technical vision consistently over the past eleven years. They shaped Alphaform, a company that sets standards in each product segments and a company that holds a leading position in each of our markets, while generating profitable growth."

"The company is well positioned to set and achieve ambitious growth targets and to continue its industrialisation and internationalisation with renewed energy. We are reviewing acquisition opportunities," adds Tobias Seige.

Andreas Dauderer and Dr. Christian Wilkening will continue to serve as members of the Management Board until the end of 2007. After this they take-up new professional projects. Alphaform AG will inform stakeholders about appointments to the new Executive Management Board, within the next few months.
